

The Company in brief

- Independent fund manager, founded 1991
- Business permit according to German Banking Act (Section 1 Paragraph 1a “Kreditwesengesetz”)
- Liabile capital: circa 0.87 million €
- Individual asset management and fund management
- Core competence in active risk management
- Development and management of systematic strategies to reduce investor risk in the capital markets
- Along with the subsidiary company GROHMANN & WEINRAUTER Institutional Asset Management GmbH about 30 portfolios and 11 public mutual investment funds are under management

Thomas Grohmann

Martin Weinrauter

The founding partners

The Management

Thomas Grohmann

Managing Director and Partner since 1991, Portfolio and Fund Manager

Born in 1960 and a banking business economist, Thomas Grohmann started his career at Commerzbank Frankfurt as head of department for international private clients. Early in his career he was a lecturer at the Frankfurt School of Finance & Management (formerly: Bankakademie) and has been involved in the development of trading systems since that time. He was an authorised Eurex-Futures trader. In 1991 he co-founded this company, specializing in the development and implementation of portfolio risk management strategies. From 1993 onwards he has been co-initiator and manager of various mutual investment funds, a member of various investment committees, and since 2004 also Managing Director and partner of GROHMANN & WEINRAUTER Institutional Asset Management GmbH as well as Managing Director of GROHMANN & WEINRAUTER Trendfonds Invest GmbH since 2008.

Martin Weinrauter

Managing Director and Partner since 1991, Portfolio and Fund Manager

Born in 1959, Martin Weinrauter began his career at Commerzbank Frankfurt. He was co-head of department for portfolio consulting, and involved in the development of trading systems. In 1991 he co-founded this company, specializing in the development and implementation of portfolio risk management strategies. Since 1993 he has been co-initiator and manager of various mutual investment funds, a member of various investment committees, and since 2004 Managing Director and partner of GROHMANN & WEINRAUTER Institutional Asset Management GmbH as well as Managing Director of GROHMANN & WEINRAUTER Trendfonds Invest GmbH since 2008.